

Digital wireless telephones to be compatible with hearing aids. Without compatability, use of wireless telephones individuals with hearing aids, and cochlear implants, will be severely limited.